

The Masked Origins in Genetic Disease

19th One-Day Symposium of the HGSA-SA Branch

Friday 6th September 2024

Sanctuary Adelaide Zoo Function Centre

Registrations open until 23rd August:

SA Branch Symposium: The Masked Origins in Genetic Disease \(hgsa.org.au\)

https://hgsa.org.au/iCore/Events/Event_display.aspx?EventKey=SA240906&WebsiteKey=d4c31fa4-467a-4959-b48b-cae3ea93e516

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

Prof. David Thorburn, University of Melbourne

Dr Nic Waddell, QIMR Berghofer

Prof. Cedric Bardy, Flinders University

Assoc. Prof. Luke Selth, Flinders University

Dr Nick Haan, Seonix Bio

Dr Amanda Choo, Rare Voices Australia

Dr Lachlan Jolly, University of Adelaide

Ms Lucy Anastasi, SA Pathology

Short Talks Competition:

Eligibility; Students + Early and Mid-Career Researchers

250 word abstract on a human genetics topic for a 6 minute short talk

Cash Prizes; 1st $1000, 2nd $500, 3rd $250. Prizes donated by GenomicPAK

Abstract Submission Deadline 16th August, Finalists Announced 23rd August

Email to: andrew.dubowsky@sa.gov.au

Essay Competition

Eligibility; Tertiary Students living in South Australia (Undergraduate to Masters candidates)

Topic; How will AI impact genetics?

1000 word limit not including references (please declare if an AI-based platform was used)

Cash Prizes; 1st $500, 2nd $250, 3rd $100 Essay Submission Deadline: 23rd August. Winners announced at the meeting

Email to: andrew.dubowsky@sa.gov.au

THIS MEETING IS PROUDLY SUPPORTED BY THE HGSA AND ITS INDUSTRY PARTNERS

The HGSA would like to acknowledge our corporate members who support our educational activities.

illumina[®]

